A hand-drawn diagram on blue grid paper showing a room layout. A large rectangle represents the room. Inside, there are three stick figures. The figure on the left is labeled 'P' and has an arrow pointing towards the center. The figure in the center is labeled 'Kyle' and has an arrow pointing towards the right. The figure on the right is labeled '21 Man' and has an arrow pointing towards the center. There are also some additional lines and arrows indicating movement or interaction between the figures.
